Queensland Forum for Christians, Jews & Muslims

The Abrahamic Faiths Forum of Queensland

Purpose of the Forum

To provide opportunity for representatives of the state bodies of each faith in Queensland to come together to build understanding and harmony in the Australian context.

Objectives

- To be a model of how different faiths can live harmoniously together
- To build understanding, good will and a sense of community between people of different faiths
- To explore and learn about each other and our faith traditions
- To share our knowledge and insights with others
- To work together to achieve common goals
- To support each other in times of difficulty
